Work for You

Work4You was developed by Acquired Brain Injury Ireland and it provides a free vocational assessment service for individuals who have an acquired brain injury and would like assistance and guidance in returning to work, training or education. It is free to anyone with an acquired brain injury and in receipt of a payment from the Dept. of Social Protection. Work4You are holding a Pop-Up Information Stand in Drumlish Library on Monday 7th July 2014 between 10.30am & 12.30pm

Through the Lens of the Gospels

For Jesus the key to a personal knowledge of God and relationship with God is not primarily through academic study but through a mind and heart open to learn. Jesus was dealing with a society in which people were very conscious of status, dignity and external appearances. He wanted to break down the barriers this created so that all would be aware of their worth and dignity. Jesus lets us into the secret of his relationship with his Father, one of total trust. This trust freed him from anxiety and worry about himself. As a result he was a person of gentle and humble heart and was able to bring rest to those who were overburdened. John Byrne OSA

Love in the Home

If I live in a house of spotless beauty with everything in it's place, but have not Love, I am a housekeeper— not a homemaker.
If I have time for waxing, polishing, and decorative achievements, but have not Love, my children learn cleanliness—not godliness.
Love leaves the dust in search of a child's laugh.
Love smiles at the tiny fingerprints on a newly cleaned window.
Love wipes away the tears before it wipes up the spilled milk.
Love picks up the child before it picks up the toys.
Love is present through the trials.
Love reprimands, reproves, and is responsive.
Love crawls with the baby, walks with the toddler, runs with the child, then stands aside to let the youth walk into adulthood,
Love is the key that opens salvation's message to a child's heart.
Before I became a parent I took glory in my house of perfection. Now I glory in God's perfection of my child.
As a parent, there is much I must teach my child, but the greatest of all is Love.

My Burdens

Lord, I'm so discouraged
I don't know what to do
I have so many burdens
And I gave them all to you.

But you didn't take them Jesus
Will you tell me why that's so?
The answer's simply little one
Because you won't let go.
