'The Meaning of Marriage'

–The Meaning of Marriageø is a pastoral statement from the Irish Catholic Bishops and is available at the back of the Church. It is the Churchø response to the debate taking place re: the re-defining of marriage as understood over the centuries. You can download it at: <http://www.catholicbishops.ie/2014/12/03/meaning-marriage/>

2015 Offertory/Dues Envelopes

The envelopes for the various collections for 2015 are now available. To cut back on expenses, envelopes will only be issued to those who used them last year. Those who don't use the envelope system but who wish to support of the priests of parish are asked to use the special envelopes available at the back of the church prior to Dues Collections. Please note that:

- your number may change from year to year;
- if you don't receive a packet of envelopes but would like to, contact any of the priests or a member of the pastoral council;
- by using the envelope system, it is possible for the parish, under the charities act, to reclaim the taxes that you may have paid for the benefit of the parish.

Thanks & Appreciation

As we come to the end of the year of 2014, the parish of Drumlish & Ballinamuck is indebted to many people because of their participation in the various activities within the parish. The community is built on such participation, both spiritually and materially. We say a special thanks at Church level to our Parish Pastoral Council, Finance Committee, Choirs, Collectors, Counters, Ministers of Communion, Readers, those who look after the Church cleaning and decorating, Altar Servers, Ushers and a host of unnamed people who help build up our Parish Community. Without your active involvement and generous commitment our Parish could not function. Thank you sincerely. As Bishop Francis said at a recent meeting of our Parish Pastoral Council: more lay people must become involved in the year(s) ahead if we are to maintain the parish unit and foster the faith of the community. We face this challenge in this new year 2015 with faith, hope and love, knowing that God is on this journey with us.

Love in the Home

If I live in a house of spotless beauty with everything in its place, but have not Love, I am a housekeeper—not a homemaker.
If I have time for waxing, polishing, and decorative achievements, but have not Love, my children learn cleanliness—not godliness.
Love leaves the dust in search of a child's laugh.
Love smiles at the tiny fingerprints on a newly cleaned window.
Love wipes away the tears before it wipes up the spilled milk.
Love picks up the child before it picks up the toys.
Love is present through the trials.
Love reprimands, reproves, and is responsive.
Love crawls with the baby, walks with the toddler, runs with the child, then stands aside to let the youth walk into adulthood.
Love is the key that opens salvation's message to a child's heart.
Before I became a mother I took glory in my house of perfection.
Now I glory in God's perfection of my child.
As a mother, there is much I must teach my child, but the greatest of all is Love.
