Teach me to feel another's woe, to hide the fault I see, that mercy I to others show, that mercy show to me.

Trócaire Boxes

Awut and Ajak are survivors. They survived a war, but each day remains a battle: a battle to earn money; a battle to grow food; a battle to pay for their children's school; a battle to survive and thrive. Their lives have been torn apart by a war they never wanted. This is the injustice of war. It is not just that they lost their homes. It is not just that they struggle each day to survive. They are supporting each other but they are living in fear, and it is not just. After Awut's husband was killed, she fled with the eight children she was looking after, trekking through the dangerous bushland until she arrived at Malek. There, she was welcomed by the people and given her own patch of land. Awut still finds it hard to talk about this time. She feared herself and her family would die stranded in the dangerous bushland, trying to flee the war. Awut and Ajak have shown incredible resilience and strength, but many challenges remain for them and their families. Trócaire is providing much needed aid to people like Awut and Ajak, but need your support to continue.

Drumlish Tidy Towns

The National Spring Clean event is scheduled for Saturday 27th March -Covid friendly. A number of enthusiasts did a litter pick last weekend along the new foot path area from Cloonaugh - it was heavily littered and even worse, dog fouled - this is a serious hazard on all walkways around the village and is the cause of slips and falls to the most vulnerable in our community - Has anyone a solution to this dog fouling problem?
NEW FOOTPATH to Drumlish Cemetery (New). This project has reached 50% of its target - thank you to all who have so generously contributed. The Go Fund Me link is: <https://www.gofundme.com/f/drumlish-ballinamuck-clg-community-fundraiser/donate>. Donations will be accepted at Drumlish Post Office or can be handed to Breda Murphy or Amanda O'Hara-McDowell. Your support is vital to the delivery of this project.
